

CLAIRE ROBINSON
YOUTH AMBASSADOR

I am an undergraduate student at the University of Alberta with a major in Ancient and Medieval History (obscure, I know). Of course, I am also an avid dressage competitor, currently with two “main horses”, my U25 horse Glamour Boy, and Kappuccino TC (who I have owned since she was 2!).

With Glamour Boy, I have been fortunate to compete in New York at the North American Young Rider competition in 2019 and then to train and compete at the U25 level in international competition.

I love to teach and ride a little extra on the side for clients of our barn (as long as I can schedule around school). I enjoy working with young and unstarted horses as well as dabble in multi discipline exploits — I do love adrenaline!
