CASINO VOLUNTEER GUIDE

- Overall responsibility for your casino will be with the General Manager. This General Manager is a volunteer from your organization. To assist the General Manager and you, a network of paid casino staff is there to help.
- A hired Games Manager, through the Pit Managers, Floor Supervisors and Dealers will provide assistance to volunteer Chip Runners as stages of the casino operations start to unfold.
- Training and support will be provided by a licensed Casino Advisor in both the Cash Cage and the Count Room. It is up to each organization to hire their advisors. Your Advisor as well as the Games Manager are well versed in Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission, Casino Terms & Conditions and Operating Guidelines.
- Volunteering at the casino is easy and fun. Duties have been refined over a number of years and are now easy and pleasant to follow. The casino is a safe endeavor. Cameras and Security monitor the casino premises at all times. If it is desired, a security guard will be glad to escort any volunteer to their vehicle at the end of their shift.
- Volunteers are not permitted to play any casino games or slot machines during the two day period that your organization has the casino license, nor consume alcohol while working.
- Assigned positions at the casino are very important. If a volunteer cannot work or will be late they should contact their General Manager as soon as possible at the phone number they were previously supplied with. If cancellation is necessary, notify your General Manager as soon as possible.
- As of January 1, 2008, the casino is non smoking.
- Dress is casual, but please no torn or immodest apparel.
- Free parking stalls are available on site. No reserved area for volunteers – first come, first park! Plenty of parking space.
- Our hospitality suite is equipped with a TV, microwave, fridge, a washroom and complimentary coffee in the Café.
- Volunteers may sign for all food purchases at any restaurant and for your convenience a 15% gratuity will be automatically added on to the final bill. If your organization exceeds $1,175.00, it is up to the organization to cover the cost.
